CHICAMAUGA BATTLE FIELD

Union Veterans Breakfast Here
This Morning.

HOW ONE YET ENJOYED HIMSELF

Standing Up All Night Makes One Tired and Thirsty—Soldier and Gentleman: "All One People Now."

A large number of Union veterans breakfasted here this morning on their way to Chicamauga battlefield to attend the dedication of the monuments to the Pennsylvania veterans. The party was from Pennsylvania and was made up of two regiments. There were 170 from the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry and 150 from the Fifteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry. Governor Hastings went down on a special train. About forty breakfasted at the Benbow though 130 had been contracted for. A large number of the war scarred heroes dropped into other places of entertainment and dallied so long they missed their breakfast.

One jolly veteran said they did not care any worth mentioning whether they got off on this train or not; that the government had appropriated $20,000 to send them down and their tickets were good on any train and over any road. The veteran had been in a place of entertainment.

There was another veteran, more or less hilarious, who had secured a tin cup of coffee, a pint or such a matter, and a sandwich some six inches by eight and with the help of the morning breezes and the railroad platform was enjoying himself as only a Pennsylvania veteran on an outing can.

Some of the veterans were kicking about the railroad accommodations. They said they were compelled to stand up all night. One poor fellow was so tired from the effects of it that he had to be carried from the place of entertainment to his train. He was tired, oh, so tired. He seemed to be resting quietly after he was placed on the train.

One of the veterans was so wearied with his all night vigil that when he attempted to reanimate a defunct cigar stump he burned off one side of his mustache. And then he did not look like a beau sabreur.

One fine old veteran on the vestibule was talking animatedly of the late war and how every inch of the way had to be fought against stubborn resistance. He was a "soldier and a gentleman" and as the train pulled out he removed his hat and said "We are all one people now," and the tears came to his eyes. And it is men of that sort that have done most to make us "one people."

About 700 veterans, in all, were transported by the Southern, while a large number went around by the B. & O. and C. & O.

PRESENT ASSIGNMENT LAW.

It is Inequitable—Some Changes Suggested.

The assignment law in this state, as it now stands, is unsatisfactory to both the debtor and creditor.

The following suggestions are offered for law:

1. Prohibit all preferred creditors in all assignments.
2. Have all the assets sold at public action.
3. Permit any creditor to apply the amount of his purchase to the liquidation of his debt.

I offer the above as a proper law to be enacted by the next legislature of the state and ask the public to discuss the same.

Later I shall have something further to say as to its merits.

Very Respectfully,
H. C. Berger.

A Costly Blaze.

Kankakee, Ill., Nov. 12.—Riverview Hotel burned here today. The loss is $85,000, while the insurance is only $20,000. Forty guests barely escaped with their lives.

THE FLOWER SHOW.

Large Attendance—The Eating Works a Big Success.

The ladies of West Market Street Church are to be congratulated on the success they are having with the lovely and attractive Chrysanthemum Show on East Market street. Over five hundred people attended yesterday and last night. The dining room was largely patronized, and it looked like there would be a dearth in the provision line, but the want was quickly and bountifully supplied so that the "eating works" were enabled to run on full time.

Today the show is running, and this the last day and night promises to be as good as yesterday. The prizes were awarded this morning and are as follows:

PLANTS.

For largest and handsomest collection of different varieties; the prize, a handsome rocking chair, given by N. J. McDuffie & Co., awarded to Mr. Schoolfield.

Second largest and handsomest collection of different varieties; a handsome lamp, awarded to Mrs. Fanny Ross.

The handsomest eight plants, white varieties only; pair chenille curtains, given by Cox-Ferre Co., awarded to Mrs. Fanny Ross.

The handsomest eight plants, pink varieties only; silk umbrella, given by Fishplate-Katz-Rankin Co., awarded to Mrs. Fanny Ross.

The handsomest eight plants of yellow varieties only; a large smyrna rug, given by Johnson & Dorsett, awarded to Mrs. Fanny Ross.

The eight finest plants of different varieties and colors; ten piece toilet set, given by Workman Bros., awarded to Mrs. Fanny Ross.

For the six finest plants of different varieties and colors; first prize, a handsome picture, given by S. L. Alderman, awarded to Mrs. Fanny Ross; second prize, a trimmed hat, given by Mrs. N. C. Weatherly, awarded to Mrs. L. W. Crawford.

The four finest plants of different varieties and colors; pair of kid gloves, given by J. M. Hendrix & Co., awarded to Mrs. Fanny Ross.

The largest and handsomest collection of anemone varieties; a dozen linen towels given by Sample Brown Mercantile Co., awarded to Mrs. Fanny Ross.

For plant with largest and handsomest single bloom; a half dozen embroidered handkerchiefs, given by Mrs. C. C. Gorrell, awarded to Mrs. R. G. Lee.

The handsomest collection of begonias; a damask table cover, given by the Guilford Department Store, first prize, Mrs. Pierce; second prize, a handsome carving set, given by Odell Hardware Co., awarded to Mrs. Sampson.

CUT FLOWERS.

The largest and handsomest collection of chrysanthemums; prize, one dozen two-year-old roses and one dozen choice winter-blooming bulbs, given by Greensboro Seed and Plant Co. Second prize, silver cap cut vinaigrette, given by Richardson & Farries; first prize Mrs. W. M. Allred, of High Point, second prize Mrs. R. G. Lee, third prize, toilet set given by Howard Gardner, awarded to Miss Sampson.

The handsomest collection of cut flowers of any varieties; a parlor table given by W. R. Forbis & Co., awarded to Miss Sampson.

AGRICULTURAL REPORT.

The Actual Condition of the Crop Represented.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, D. C. Nov. 12.—The preliminary reports to the Department of Agriculture indicate an average yield of 1,819 pounds of cotton per acre. The average of pounds sent in by states is as follows: North Carolina, 184; South Carolina, 87; Georgia, 178; Alabama, 155; Mississippi, 220; Louisiana, 245; Texas, 155; Arkansas, 215; Tennessee, 152; Oklahoma, 255; Indian Territory 300. In the main that of the crop which has been picked is in excellent condition, the weather having been highly favorable. There is not the slightest disposition on the part of the department correspondents to overestimate the effect of the unfavorable conditions during the growing season or to conceal or minimize the importance of such conditions as have been favorable.

While the figures now published are subject to revision in the final report, they are believed to approximately represent the actual condition of the crop.

THORN GETS A NEW TRIAL

SPAIN IS GROWING GRACIOUS

Discriminating Duties Suspended—A Steamer Sinks—Burned to Death.

Kelley Gets Thirty Years.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Long Island City, N. J., Nov. 12.—The condition of Juror Larsen in the Thorn trial, who was operated on for appendicitis, is very serious. It will be impossible for him to attend court within a month.

It was decided today that Thorne will get a new trial in consequence. Lawyer Howe's plan of holding the same eleven jurors and getting a new one was rejected. The second trial will begin so soon as a new panel can be drawn.

PRISONERS PARDONED.

Havana, Nov. 12.—Dispatches from Madrid have fully confirmed the previous reports to the effect that the Competitor prisoners will be included in the general amnesty, which is to be granted the prisoners by Gen. Blanco. These prisoners were captured aboard the American schooner Competitor by a Spanish gunboat. The decree will soon be issued.

NO DISCRIMINATION.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The President issued this afternoon his proclamation suspending the collection of discriminating duties upon Mexican shipping upon satisfactory proof that no discrimination is practiced against American shipping ports.

AN UNLUCKY BOAT.

West Point, Nov. 12.—The freight and passenger steamboat Ulster, in a storm last night, sank in twenty-five fathoms of water. There were fifteen passengers aboard, but all were landed safely.

IS KELLEY INSANE?

Dover, N. H. Nov. 13.—Joseph E. Kelley who confessed to having murdered Cashier Stickney, was today adjudged guilty and sentenced to thirty years in the state prison. A strong effort was made to secure his acquittal on the ground of insanity but it was without avail. Four physicians testified that the murder was not responsible for the crime.

PERISHED IN FLAMES.

Berlin, Nov. 12.—Seven persons perished in a fire which started in the woodwork of a mine shaft near Antonienhutt, Silesia, yesterday.

SCHOONER ASHORE.

Galilee, N. J. Nov. 12.—A schooner was driven ashore at Ocean Beach Shoals this morning. The life saving crew succeeded in launching their boat and rescuing the crew of the schooner. The name of the schooner was not learned.

SNOWING IN BOSTON.

Boston, Nov. 12.—The first snow of the season fell here this morning.

BUTTERWORTH OUT OF DANGER.

Cleveland, O. Nov. 12.—Benjamin Butterworth is decidedly better today and will soon be out of danger.

RUSSIAN MINISTER RECALLED.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 12.—The Russian minister to the United States, M. E. Deketzebuc has been relieved of his post at his own request on account of ill health.

NEW WIELDER OF THE GAVEL.

Vienna, Nov. 12.—Dr. Abraham Ovis, first vice-president of the lower house of the Reichsrath has been elected president of that body. He succeeds Dr. Kathrein who resigned on the 26th of October.

Football.

The game between Greensboro and Wilmington will be finished about 5 o'clock. THE TELEGRAM will bulletin the game.

MISS WILLARD WILL GIVE $3,000

A Starter for a Subscription to Save the Woman's Temple.

Chicago Nov. 11.—Miss Francis E. Willard, president of the W. C. T. U., announces that she will contribute $3,000 of her own money to start the fund of $300,000 which the temperance women need to hold control of the temple property.

In an interview Miss Willard said this sum was raised by women throughout the country, and came to her as a memorial testimonial on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of her birthday. Continuing, she said:

"This sum of $3,000 has been in the bank ever since it came into my possession, and I have concluded that I cannot better show my love to the women who gave it than to put it into the fund for the enterprise which has been the pride of us all. I have a heaven-born presentment that the temple is to be saved to our cause."

THESSALY A WASTE.

Desolated by Turkish Soldiers—30,000 of Them Sick.

London, Nov. 11.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Standard, who is visiting the Ismidt district, telegraphs that he has learned there of the terrible ravages of sickness in the Turkish army in Thessaly. Of 200 redifs or reserves, who were taken from the district, only forty have returned to their homes. Turkish transports are daily embarking the sick, the number of whom, it is estimated, is 30,000.

Reports from Thessaly describe the province as a perfect waste. The Ottoman troops have gradually eaten up the whole country. Houses have been gutted by the troops and their contents sold to Jewish syndicates.

AUSTRIA AND TURKEY AT ODDS.

Cruiser Sent to Mersina to Protect Austrian Subjects.

Vienna, Nov. 11.—The semi-official Fromdenblatt says there is a noticeable coolness between the Austrian embassy and the porte, owing to the high-handed action attributed to the local authorities of Mersina, Asia Minor, with relation to the agent at that port of the Austrian Lloyd steamship company, a merchant named Brazzafoli. The Austrian cruiser Leopard has been sent to Mersina, the port of Adna, capital of the vilayet of that name, with instructions to protect the Austrian consulate and the Christians of Mersina.

MAJ. BUTTERWORTH TO RESIGN.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Information has reached the White House from Ohio to the effect that Major Butterworth, commissioner of patents, has made up his mind to resign by the first of next year. He thinks that his physical condition is due to the labors of the office.

In addition he is unable to give the time to his private law practice that he would desire. It is said that ex-Representative Doolittle of Washington will be an applicant to succeed Major Butterworth.

Future of the Citizens' Union.

New York, Nov. 11.—Richard Watson Gilder presided at a meeting of nine members of the executive committee of the Citizens' Union tonight. The meeting was called to discuss ways and means for the maintenance of the organization.

The Citizens' Union will not go into state politics, nor will it take part in next year's congressional contests. Secretary Clarke said it will be continued with all earnestness.

Her Cargo Burning.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Cape Henry, Va., Nov. 12.—The British steamer Gavoron, from Galveston for Newport News, has signalled the weather bureau that her cargo is burning.

Anarchist's Anniversary Celebration.

Berlin, Nov. 11.—A meeting of anarchists was held here today to celebrate the anniversary of the execution of the anarchists of Haymarket Square, Chicago. Several inflammatory speeches were made, and finally the police interrupting the diatribe of a speaker, dissolved the meeting.

More Cloak-Makers Strike.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 12.—Thirteen hundred cloak-makers, employed by Freidman Bros., struck today because their wages were reduced ten per cent.

Two Girls Beaten, Tarred and Feathered.

BLOODHOUNDS ON THE TRAIL.

Mrs. Nack Sleeps Well Since Her Confession.—Mt. Vesuvius Continues in Eruption.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Oakwood, Nov. 13.—The white caps maltreated two young girls here last night and the community is thoroughly incensed. The girls were named Edith and May Roberts and were only seventeen and nineteen years of age respectively. A white cap notice had been sent to the girls sometime ago warning them to leave the county and threatening them with dire punishment if they remained. The pair paid no attention to the notice and last night ten men went to the house where they were sleeping, awakened them tarred and feathered and beat them horribly. One of the girls had her flesh cut to the bone with a cat-o'-nine tails. Blood hounds have been placed on the trail of the men.

LYING AGREES WITH HER.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 12.—Sheriff Doherty says that ever since she made her confession Mrs. Nack has slept well.

BUSINESS AT THE OLD STAND.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Naples, Nov. 12.—The eruption of Vesuvius which began on last Monday is still going on and is increasing in violence.

"BATHHOUSE JOHN."

He is Going to Smother Chicago's Anti-Football Ordinance.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—"Bathhouse John" Coughlin, Alderman from the First ward, which is also represented in the Council by "Hinky Dink," is going to have all kinds of fun with Alderman Plotke's anti-football ordinance when it comes before the Council. He has prepared an amendment to the ordinance to prohibit golf as well as football; also baseball, croquet, pinochle and other card games, tiddle-de-winks, jack straws, ring-around-the-rose, forfeits, drop the handkerchief, postoffice, pillow, leapfrog and shinny.

Bathhouse John will offer his amendment at next Monday evening's Council meeting. He says he is in earnest. "Many a child is hurt by falling while playing ring-around-the-rose," he says, "and we all know it frequently hurts a man's finances to play hearts and old sledge. Tiddle-de-winks is as much a menace to public safety as football, and the debasing effects of checkers, golf, leapfrog, handball, pillow and cinch upon the community cannot be overestimated. Play no favorites in this matter, is my motto. If one game is to go, let us push the others out, too."

PULLMAN'S SUCCESSOR.

R. T. Lincoln Elected President of Pullman Car Company.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—A meeting of the directors of the Pullman car company was held today.

Robert T. Lincoln was elected a director. The most important action taken was the appointment of an active committee, consisting of H. E. Hulbert, of New York, and Marshal Field and Robt. T. Lincoln, of Chicago, which will have charge of the general affairs of the company.

Mr. Lincoln was elected chairman of the committee. The election of a president to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George M. Pullman was proposed.

Today's action, however, practically makes Mr. Lincoln president of the Pullman company.

Quarantine Raised.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Commencing today the Mississippi quarantine regulations have been raised against Memphis and the Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham Railroad has resumed operations of their trains. As a result, the Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Memphis, operated via Atlanta and Birmingham, over the Southern Railway, which, on account of the quarantine regulations, was discontinued, will again resume operations between New York and Memphis.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?

WHERE THE SHOE PINCHES.

The Winston Republican, which is nothing if not a political philosopher with a genius for explanation that is second in quality and lucidness only to that of the peerless Mr. Marion Butler, makes matters clear as follows:

"It is not true that the people have been manifesting any dissatisfaction with the Republican national policy of protection and sound money, but there is a wide spread feeling of discontent over the 'Mugwump' idea of Civil Service that is being engrafted upon our government system, that threatens the disruption of any party that endorses it."

And there you have it all in one little paragraph. The "boys" have not been rewarded with sufficient promptness and copiousness. There are still a few democrats left in government service and the rage of the republican voter so waxes at the thought that he knives his party.

If this is not a virtual admission that the republican is such for spoils only it is hard to understand what it is. The Republican should not judge the party elsewhere by the party in the south. We prefer to believe that 200,000 men did not change sides in New York because they failed to secure a place under the McKinley administration. The Republican judges its own party too harshly.

After explaining in one column how it was all chargeable to the obstinate civil service the Republican tells in another column how it did not happen at all. It gives as a "cold fact" this:

"Then, too, the Popocratic majority in New York State is due wholly to the failure of the Low republicans to vote the republican State ticket, not because it was not printed upon their ballot. Had it been so printed and voted, New York State would have given 50,000 republican majority."

This would seem to be rather a warm inference from meagre particulars than a cold fact. The joint vote of Low and Tracy was only 15,000 greater than the vote of Van Wyck. Parker carried the State by 68,000. How this 15,000 in the city would have wiped out the 68,000 and have added 50,000 to the other side as a majority is not quite apparent. But it was not dissatisfaction, only that the name of Wallace was not printed on the ballot.

There are some things that are best not explained. The late returns are among them. Even such stick-fast partisanship as that of the Republican can not bring any meaning from them save that of a stinging rebuke to McKinleyism. Such it is and as such Mr. McKinley himself has accepted it.

The President's refusal to override the civil service regardless of decency and propriety is the one thing that has entailed him to the respect of sensible men in all parties since the beginning of an administration that has been neither strong nor brilliant. Cavil of his own faith and order at the one creditable stand he has taken comes with the exceeding poor grace.

General Blanco is not in very good health, but his bodily vigor still enables him to deny insurgent victories.

The New York Sun is now explaining "How the Election Law Works." The Sun ought to know. It has only been a few days since 200,000 people showed the Sun how the thing operates.

When the final history of the sealing question comes to be written it will be found to have furnished some lovely outings, nice, fat salaries and several reams of good fuel, in the shape of diplomatic deliberations.

While the successful candidates are sending in itemized accounts of campaign expenditures in New York, Mr. Platt and Mr. Low preserve a silence that is comparable only to that of the man who backed the horse left at the post.

The suggestion that the United States dig the Nicaragua canal with the proceeds of the Union Pacific sale is about the coolest thing that has befallen since Andree started for the Pole. Even the capacity of the government for being unbooned has a limit.

The Asheville correspondent of the New York Sun says that Mr. Croker has been climbing mountains around Hot Springs; that he "gazed at the beautiful western sunset." Ah, indeed, and are we to presume that Mr. Croker's previous experiences were confined to eastern sunsets?

The Hon. Tom Watson, of Georgia, the erstwhile second tail of the kite, is of the opinion that the Rev. Sam Jones is the greatest Georgian. We would fain call the Hon. Tom's attention to the fact that since the advent of the Hogshead postmaster the Rev. Sam has occupied a rear pew in the public notice.

Uncle Sam and the Don are engaged in the delightful business of assuring one another how pleased they are with one another's explanations, but meantime work on the new cruisers of each is being rushed with all possible dispatch, while the spies of each are searching diligently for the location of the other's solar-plexus.

A correspondent of the Caucasian writes that journal that some people down about Bunn's Level are "tackling the wrong thing at an improper time." Why, who would have thought that affairs could ever get in such a horrible fix, down at Bunn's Level? Wonder what would happen if some of 'em were to tackle the right thing at the wrong time?

The yarn about the sailors on the Oregon being refused meat on Good Friday and being compelled to salute a priest is on a par with the yellowest of yellow journalism. Yet it was copied and re-copied by the religious press of the country. The religious press is given to working off some of the "holier-than-thou" business on the secular papers at well modulated intervals. It would be well to pluck out a few beams occasionally. The old cry of "Romanism" has been used for about all it is worth. The more sensible of religious papers have dropped it and the sooner others follow suit the better. Roman or Mahometan, Protestant or Buddhist it can make no difference to this government so a sailor do but perform his duty.

HIGH WINDS IN COLORADO.

Houses Blown Down and Roads Blocked by Falling Trees.

Denver, Col., Nov. 11.—A wind storm which bordered very closely on a cyclone passed over the suburb of Barnum yesterday. The sides of houses and barns were blown in and out-houses were carried fifty feet. The storm lasted for fifteen minutes. The signal service, situated down town, where the full force of the wind was not felt, reported a velocity of fifty miles an hour.

At Boulder a terrific wind storm raged all day. In the suburb of Highland Lodge a brick house was blown down. The mountain roads are blocked by trees, and all telephone and telegraph lines to mining camps are down.

There is a movement for the establishment of a State textile school. A committee is raised to press the matter, and will correspond with all cotton mill owners and editors in North Carolina. It will urge the Legislature to make the appropriation.

TRAVELING A LA HOG

MODERN PRODIGALS TAKE POTLUCK WITH PORKERS.

How Chicago Ticket Speculators Get the Best of Railroad Companies—Five Dollars for a Ride to New York on the Hog Train.

Railroad officials have until recently had no knowledge of the fact that passenger fares from Chicago to New York were being quoted daily for $5 per passenger and that that figure was being made over the strong lines.

But such, nevertheless, is a fact, and this tale is told to show the railroad people that with all of their shrewdness somebody has gone them one better and not only hoodwinked them, but has cut into the revenue of the roads regardless of the big associations organized and maintained to prevent just such tricks.

Any one who wants to get to New York while the present $5 rate is being quoted would be foolish to go to a city passenger office and pay out $30 for the privilege, especially as along with the $5 rate goes a car, only one passenger being allowed to a car on this route. While the trains on which this cheap rate is available do not leave from the union depots, and it is necessary for passengers to embark at the Union stockyards, that little inconvenience is offset by the saving of $15.

The new way of getting to New York for a $5 bill is probably not known to a dozen railroad officials in Chicago. It can properly be termed "the hog route," as the passengers who go by it travel with hogs and are waylaid as hogs. Somewhere about the yards is a man who acts as general passenger agent of "the hog route."

One day recently a broken down, dispirited young fellow, who not more than two years ago held a good position in a railroad office in Chicago, got a yearning for his home "down east." He had not a cent, and none of his old friends would fix him out with transportation. Finally, in some manner, he got knowledge of "the hog route" and, succeeding in getting an old chum to once more lend him a five, he moved off to the yards, and it was his departure by this route that furnished the material for this tale.

Arriving at the stockyards and hunting up the man who is making money off this scheme, he took the fellow to a train of hogs about to pull out for the east, opened the door of one of the cars, after getting possession of the man's $5, told him to get in and then locked him in with the rest of the hogs.

Not much ceremony attends the sending of passengers by this route, each passenger being given a long black whip to keep the other hogs off and the waybills of the traveler as a hog, shipped from Chicago to New York in such and such a car, being the only attention shown.

Strange as this tale may seem about men being shipped out of the stockyards as hogs, with hogs, and left to live with them for days until they arrive at destination, such a practice actually exists, and some men or a clique of cheap scalpers are said to be deriving a good revenue from it.

By a man who knows it is stated that several passengers leave Chicago in this manner daily. Possibly some of them may think that for the accommodations furnished the rate of $5 to New York is somewhat excessive. Some day, likely, the employees of some New York slaughter house, in their haste to butcher a newly arrived carload of hogs, will cut up a passenger traveling by this route, and then it will become unpopular.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Fought With Coconut.

A recent three cornered fight in a St. Louis grocery store had some peculiar features. The participants were J. Johnson, J. P. Blake and Fred Risse. The men fought hand to hand for a few seconds, overturning boxes and barrels and pummeling each other. Blake finally cut Risse in the arm, and Risse retreated to a pile of coconuts, where he established his defense. He began a fusillade of coconuts, which proved too much for his antagonists. Blake dodged all the nuts that came his way, but Johnson was not so successful. Several of the coconuts landed on his head. One of them inflicted a scalp wound which required six stitches.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Rats Electrocuted.

An electrical rattrap is said to have captured 123 rats in one night in a New York restaurant. The trap is baited with chickens—An irresistible attraction to rats. As soon as a rodent is inside his return is electrically cut off, and he passes by doors and passage ways to a compartment in which are meat and vegetables, but no chicken. The rats outside hear expressions of enjoyment of his lunch and hasten to join him.

She Was Stolen Thrice.

At Ball's Creek camp meeting recently a young man named Watts stole a young woman named Serence and married her near the stole her from her husband. Later the husband again stole her from the old man. The latter filled up on blockade liquor and went in search of them. He found them, but he could not get the girl back.—Lincoln (N. C.) Journal.

New York's New Bridge.

Between the trusses of the new East river bridge, New York, will be six elevated railroad and trolley tracks, and on the outside of each truss a roadway, for which traffic will be provided. Inside the trusses and above the trolley tracks will be two walks for pedestrians. The total width of the floor will be 118 feet. There will be four foundations for the bridge, two under each tower.

Land Sale

By virtue of a mortgage deed executed by John Bethel and wife Fannie Bethel, on the 28th day of October, 1895, to J. W. Kerr, (since dead) and in consequence of a failure to pay the debt secured in said mortgage, I will sell the highest bidder, for cash, at the court house door in Greensboro, N. C., on Saturday, December 4th, 1897, the lands described in said mortgage, butted and bounded as follows: Beginning on northeast corner of street on Main street leading to Greensboro, thence north 60 degrees east along westerly side of said street 10 1/3 poles, thence north 87 degrees west 14 1/3 poles, thence south 30 degrees west 10 1/4 poles to north side of said street, thence 87 degrees east with said street 14 poles to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less. There is reserved from this sale a portion of this boundary heretofore sold to Frank Fields. The above mortgage is recorded in book 102, page 75, in the office of the register of deeds, Nov. 4, 1897. LAURA KERR, Executrix of J. W. Kerr, deceased.

NEGRO—WANTED TO GO.

All Had Klondike Fever Until the "Organizer" Came to Town.

"Perhaps you may not think that the Klondike fever struck the colored people down our way," said Mr. J. G. Haskins of South Carolina during a recent visit to Washington.

"It struck them hard, and the fever raged with great virulence, particularly in Charleston, for quite a period. It is in order, however, to state that there has been a great abatement of the malady so far as the negro element of our town is concerned. The man who would be rash enough to say 'Klondike' to a lot of colored Charlestonians would be in imminent danger of being ripped open with a razor.

"A week or so ago there appeared in Charleston one of the glibest talkers that ever hit the old city. He fanned the rising excitement about the goldfields of Alaska with cunning art, and he held forth about the wealth to be gathered just for the mere going after it till he had his audiences well nigh crazy. At the proper time he sprung his scheme, which was nothing more or less than the organization of Klondike clubs for the sole and exclusive benefit of the colored race. The negroes had just as much right to the gold that lay round loose up there as anybody, and if they didn't avail themselves of the glorious opportunity to become rich they were the biggest fools on earth. All they had to do was to join the clubs and get an interest in the profits that would accrue. The more money each individual contributed the more would be his share of the proceeds, and the promoter advised everybody to invest every dollar that could be raised.

"Well, those people fairly tumbled over each other in subscribing to the Klondike enterprise. The sleek promoter was in no hurry, but after several days of fat collections he concluded he had worked his Charleston compatriots sufficiently and decamped for fresh pastures. It is safe to say that his colored carcass wouldn't be worth a copper if ever he shows up in that community again. It was a great bunko game, but it can't be worked twice in the same town."—Washington Post.

KLONDIKE IN WINTER.

How the Natives of the Northwest Keep Themselves Warm.

The Eskimos of the Yukon region have mastered the art of keeping warm with little or no fire. They can live when the thermometer is at 60 degrees below zero with no other heat than that given by a single lamp, re-enforced by that of their own bodies.

The lamp is lighted and set in the middle of a hut so low that no one can stand upright in it. Around the side of the hut is a shelf, generally made of frozen snow, and covered thickly with furs. On this shelf the Indians lie in their sleeping bags, crowded together as closely as they can be packed. The entrance to the hut is through a sort of a tunnel so constructed that the outer air will be entirely excluded. The hut is thus almost wholly without ventilation, and when the lamp is lighted its heat, with that of perhaps a dozen human bodies, makes it possible for any one to live through the winter in the hut, provided he can stand the unspeakable foulness of its atmosphere.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

CATS LOSE A FRIEND.

The Death of Miss Mayhew Ends a Life Devoted to the Welfare of Felines.

Lonely cats, deserted by their owners or lured from their homes by heartless boys, have lost a good friend in Miss Annie Mayhew, who died a short time ago in England. This woman was the founder of a cats' home, and her whole time and energies were devoted to caring for deserted and stray pussies, on whose behalf she was constantly appealing to the kindly hearted. Every summer she issued an appeal through the press to persons leaving town, begging them not to forget poor puss, leaving it to starve in their absence.

Miss Mayhew was a firm believer in the theory that there is a happy hunting ground for felines in the future and that human beings and animals will somewhere meet again in the great hereafter. It comforted her to think that in some way pussies who had suffered gross cruelties at the hands of men and women in this life might some day have their compensation.—Exchange.

Ready For All Corners.

Kentucky is the home of up to date officers. J. P. Wooten is a constable in Breathitt county, Ky. In the same county there are any number of moonshiners. In order to cope with these outlaws of the mountains, whose aim is invariably true, Constable Wooten has just purchased an absolutely bullet proof steel shirt.—Louisville Post.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Teresina Tua, the violinist, now the Countess Franchi-Verny, has been nominated an officer of the French academy.

Professor J. H. Trumbull of Hartford, whose death has just been announced, was said to be the only person who could read Eliot's Indian Bible.

Camille Saint-Saens will go to London next spring to conduct one of his operas at Covent Garden.

Edward Everett Hale said recently that he believed that the thorough training in Latin given the Boston boys from 1635 to 1775 had much to do with that city's reputation as a literary center.

News of the Old North State.

Mr. Nelson Hicks, the oldest citizen of Oxford, died at his home in that place at the advanced age of 84 years.

At the last meeting of the Oxford commissioners a petition was presented to allow bicycles on the sidewalks of the town except four streets and on these a bicycle track is to be graded at once.

Rev. John White says that a new Baptist Association has been organized in Alleghany county, N. C., and Grayson county, Va., making 55 in the State, and that it will be under the North Carolina Baptist Convention.

Another big tobacco fair will be held in Winston next fall. This is the enthusiastic and unanimous decision of the Piedmont Tobacco Fair Association, which was re-organized yesterday by the election of the old officers.

The steam flour mill and cotton gin of J. R. Parks, at Cape, in Randolph county, was burned last night by the explosion from a lantern near the gin. Five hundred bushels of wheat lost, and thirty bales of cotton. No insurance.

Work on the extension of the Carolina Midland road, from Mocksville to Mooresville, is progressing rapidly as well as satisfactorily. The number of hands is being increased daily. One thousand will be at work the latter part of the month.

An Asheboro special to the Charlotte Observer says: John Johnson killed another negro, Henry Spruill, at Biscoe, a station on the Asheboro and Aberdeen road in Montgomery county last night on the way from a festival. Johnson shot Spruill through the heart, killing him instantly. Spruill cut Johnson in several places before he was shot.

It is learned that the owners of the Davis School are indebted to the professors several thousand dollars for services rendered. They have employed counsel and may bring suit against Col. A. C. Davis, now of Goldsboro, who is said to own all but four 850 shares in the school. It is also learned that an expert will be employed to investigate the books to see what disposition was made of the receipts during the past few years.

TWO HUNTERS SHOT IN BUSHES.

Another Hunter Thought a Deer Was Stirring and Fired Into It.

Sayville, N. Y., Nov. 11.—A shooting accident occurred in the woods at Ronkonkoma this afternoon. Two hunters from Lakeland, seeing a deer standing out of range, began to crawl through the underbrush to a point of vantage. William Gregory, a hunter from Patchogue, who was on the lookout for deer a short distance away, seeing the bushes move, and thinking that a deer was in them, fired into them. He was horrified when the two men jumped into the air and then fell back to the ground in agony. Each had received several dangerous buckshot wounds. The men refused to tell their names. They were taken home by friends.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Are You Subject to Attacks of COLIC?

If So, There is No Need to Suffer.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

WILL CURE YOU

For several years I had been subject to severe attacks of cramp colic. Sometimes they would last me an hour and hardly a week passed that I did not have several attacks. I tried everything that was suggested, but found no relief. During these attacks the muscles of the arm and leg were terribly drawn and the whole body was cramped. I was advised to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, which gave me relief at once, but not until I had taken two dozen bottles was I entirely cured. It was eight years ago since I took the remedy, and I have not had a touch of the trouble since.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

H. E. McIver, of Winston, was in the city today.

Tonight closes the big flower show. Don't fail to see it.

L. B. Albertson has moved from Walker avenue to 416 Asheville street.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Lash came in on the noon train from Walnut Cove.

The sidewalk in front of the new Doggett building has been newly laid with brick.

Rev. J. A. Cunningham went away today to complete his last round of quarterly meetings.

The nights are getting cold and "kiver" is in demand. Read the ad today of the Sample Brown Mercantile Company.

W. M. Rogers, the clever representative of the News and Observer, left on the noon train after spending a day or two here.

Gloves is the subject of Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud's ad today and it tells why the man, having froze, did freeze his fingers.

George Detmar, the bicycle repair man who is with Garland Daniel, was called to Knoxville last night by illness in his family.

Does all coal look alike to you? Well, there is a difference and Cunningham Bros. are talking about that difference in their ad today.

The Southside Pharmacy, under the management of Mr. McIlhenny, is doing a good business. They also advertise in THE TELEGRAM and have a new ad today.

Read the new penny ad today of McClamroch Bros. While J. R. McClamroch is away at Carthage doing a big job, the business is going on at the old stand just the same.

There were only two or three passengers on the special train which left here for the Cumberland fair at 7 o'clock this morning. Odds to even that the train was packed before it reached Fayetteville.

The eating works at the big flower show is being gracefully and charmingly presided over by the following young ladies: Misses Lizzie and Pearl Balsley, Bessie Alford, Nellie Pool, Helen Wheeler, Ruby Eldridge, Maggie Hanner, Julia Pierce, Hattie Watlington, Nannie Wood and Connie Clegg.

A few days ago Messrs. Pitts & Bain advertised a large lot of wood for sale—just a little penny ad about it in THE TELEGRAM—and today they tell us to take it out, the wood is all sold and they are having calls which they cannot supply. The moral is plain—put it in THE TELEGRAM and the people will see it.

At the last quarterly conference at Centenary church, held last night, A. A. Johnson was elected Sunday School superintendent, vice B. E. Smith. The following were elected stewards for the ensuing year: Dr. E. L. Stamey, A. A. Johnson, C. C. Johnson, C. E. Brower, J. W. Merritt, G. W. Pritchett, T. A. Glascock, H. T. Allred, S. S. Halthcock, M. Vuncannon and E. E. Bain. T. A. Glascock was made recording steward and J. W. Merritt, district steward.

WM. A. BROWN DEAD.

A Prominent Citizen of Greensboro Dies at Waycross, Ga.

Mr. Wm. A. Brown, of this city, died last night at Waycross, Ga., whither he went a week ago for treatment in the hospital there. He was afflicted with a complication of diseases, and was carried to the Waycross hospital by his son Rev. R. A. Brown who is pastor of the Presbyterian church in Waycross.

The deceased was a member of Westminster Presbyterian church of this city, and the remains will be brought home tonight and interred tomorrow at Alamance church, six miles southeast of town, where his wife is buried. He was about 60 years old, and leaves several children, with three of whom Misses Donna, Minnie and Maggie, he was living with on Asheville street.

Mr. Brown was a well known and popular man. He was for ten or twelve years a salesman with S. S. Brown, and afterwards held a position with the Hudson Store company for a year or two. At the time of his death he had held the position of salesman with J. T. Rankin & Co., about four years. His friends are numbered by hundreds, who will be pained to hear of his death.

THE TELEGRAM extends sympathy to the bereft children and friends of the deceased.

Evidences of Genius.

"This baby," said the fond father as he turned for another lap along the room, "is going to be a great actress one of these days."

"What makes you think so?" inquired his wife.

"Just look at the way she can shed real tears and bring an audience to its feet."—Washington Star.

WATERSON SATURDAY NIGHT.

State Normal and Industrial College Entertainment Course.

A course of seven entertainments to be given at the State Normal and Industrial College will begin on Saturday night, November 13th, with Henry Waterson's lecture on "Abraham Lincoln."

The charge of admission to any one of the entertainments will be 50 cents. A course ticket admitting to all the seven will cost $2.

One of the entertainments will be given by the students of the college, and possibly another by the Greensboro orchestra now being organized under the management of Prof. Brockman.

All the other entertainments will consist of lectures or concerts of the highest order obtainable for the money received for the tickets. There is no desire to make any money by the course for any cause whatever; the only object being to secure a good course of entertainments for the students of the Normal college, and for others who wish to enjoy the entertainments with them.

The course will probably close in March or April with a lecture by President Andrews, of Brown University.

It is possible to secure Strodin one of his great stereopticon lectures, that will be included in the course.

Comfortable seats will be arranged and reserved for those holding course tickets.

None of the other entertainments will take place on Saturday night; Henry Waterson could not be secured for any other night.

Course tickets may be purchased at either book-store in the city or at the entrance door Saturday night.

Charles D. McIver, President.

Competition Invited.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, who usually gets anything that is going in the way of news, sends the following to that paper:

C. B. Edwards, well known as a capital shot at partridges, shows me a rare English work on hunting which tells of a sow which for over ten years pointed and retrieved partridges in a better style than any dog in England. At her master's death she was bought for $51. She then weighed 700 pounds but up to the very day she was killed did her wonderful work in the field. All the statements regarding her are authenticated. Dogs were reluctant to hunt with her, as she put them to shame very frequently.

Before and After.

THE TELEGRAM has a fine collection of photographs, in Alderman's best style, showing some of the Guilford county roads "before and after taking" the course of treatment prescribed by surveyor of roads Bandy. They show very strikingly the marked improvement that is going on in our roads. Where the roads were narrow, rough and steep before, these photographs show smooth, broad highways, excellently graded. THE TELEGRAM is proud of the collection as showing Guilford county's progress along the line most needed.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Home of Fashion.

Men of fashion find our stock replete with nobbiest importations. Clothes are the outward expression of your taste. "Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy, but not expressed in fancy; rich—not gaudy, for the apparel oft proclaims the man." The truth is always the strongest argument. Pleasing our patrons makes life pleasant for us.

A Good Combination:

WEAR The looks of clothing may be a temporary availment, but if good service be not with them, they'll never please you.

FIT A poor fitting garment, no matter how the material, should not be worn by an up-to-date dresser.

STYLE A suit needs this to catch the eye and aid you in appearance.

PRICE Uniting the foregoing elements in clothing to sell at prices to suit the times is just exactly what we are doing.

A Taste of Winter.

Soon you will need something heavier in the furnishing line. Remember that while summer was here we were looking after your wants. All you have to do is to come see how well we have provided for you. With us you will find everything up-to-date. Not yesterday, but today, tomorrow. Liberality and fair dealing, good merchandise and moderate prices, have been the corner-stone of our success.
